

Small Group Leader Job Description

The Basics

“Our vision is to see the transforming power of Jesus Christ at work in the lives of today’s youth.”
Volunteers are vital in reaching this vision.

You don’t need to be young, athletic, or an outstanding Bible scholar. But, you do need to:

1. Be a follower of Jesus Christ who is faithfully living a consistent godly lifestyle. Growth in your relationship with Jesus Christ must be evident.
2. Be faithfully involved in a local church.
3. Desire to minister to urban young people.
4. Be available to be regularly and consistently involved in this ministry.
5. Be teachable, that is possessing a willingness to learn and to put into practice what has been taught.

Because we take reaching youth for Christ seriously, we expect our volunteers to take it seriously as well. And, because we love and are protective of our kids, all volunteers must go through an interview process, including a criminal background check.

Small Group Leaders

In big groups...

- Students can hide and relate superficially.
- Volunteers can easily become “stand around” chaperones with little to do.

In small groups...

- Students can be known, cared for, challenged and disciplined.
- Volunteers can discover the joy of being a shepherd of students.

In order to effectively minister to more students we are recruiting small group leaders for all of our programs. You pick the program that is right for you.
